Our Story

What we are

THE FOREIGNERS
BANK

Gringo (/ˈɡriːŋɡoʊ/, Spanish: [ˈɡriŋɡo], Portuguese: [ˈɡɾĩɡu]) (masculine) or gringa (feminine) is a term in Spanish and Portuguese for a foreigner.

Digital Bank aimed specifically at foreigners living in Brazil.

“If you have a CPF in Brazil, then by law you are entitled to a bank account”.

“The issue is the big banks don’t want your business”.

“By not having access to basic financial services is a costly, time consuming, stressful and generally an unpleasant experience”.

Shane Cassar
Founder and fellow gringo

Why we are doing this

THE
BANK

Brazilian Banks generally don't want foreigners as clients.

Foreigners need Brazilian Banking services as much as anyone.

A neglected, untapped and growing marketplace

You are not alone...

BANK

“When things are falling apart, they are actually falling into place”

Approximately 5% of Brazilians speak English, and the definition of speaking English is quite debateable.

It is one of the hardest countries in the world to navigate, and without help from a banking institution, you are very much isolated.

And when you are isolated, you are forced into situations what are at time very hard to accept.

I should know as this was once me...
